

Client Feedback

Phases 2 & 3 for TOTAL South Pars

Glowing Report from TOTAL South Pars

Experience gained during the SP2&3 start-up phase and later routine operation has show that this software package is an indispensable tool for real-time prediction of the sea line liquid hold-up volume.

Further it is used for planning of mechanical pigging frequencies, glycol inventory control, and for flow assurance, in order to ensure optimal and safe production.